

PennState

Shaver's Creek
Environmental Center

Hope for the Earth ART COLLECTION

ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Thank you for considering submitting your artwork to Shaver's Creek Environmental Center for our Hope for the Earth collection! In celebration of the 50th Earth Day and the impact this event has had on the environmentalism movement, we have been inspired by how Earth Day has created hope for a more sustainable future. Especially in the face of the COVID-19 pandemic, people all over the world have been finding hope and inspiration in walks outside. Our goal for this collection is to provide space for everyone to creatively reflect on the connections that people have with each other and the natural world.

FAQ

Which mediums of original artwork will we accept?

- High quality images of paintings, sculpture, ceramics, drawings, mixed-media/collage, makeup art, photography, graphic illustration
- Videos of choreography, dramatic performance, poetry readings, or animation (3 minutes or less)
- Writing such as an essay, fictional story, or poetry (1000 words or less)

Will my art be published by Shaver's Creek?

Shaver's Creek Environmental Center will publish selected submissions to our blog hopefortheearth.tumblr.com on a rolling basis. You can expect your art to be potentially shared on our blog within the week after you submit this form.

Shaver's Creek Environmental Center staff members and interns reserve the right to reject submissions that are inappropriate for our audience.

Other questions? Contact Meryl at mfh5650@psu.edu or Alison at akk158@psu.edu.

We are accepting art submissions around the four themes listed below:

HONOR

How do you connect with other people and the earth? How can you inspire and work together with your local, national, or global communities for the earth?

#connection
#community
#humanity
#respect
#kindness

OBSERVE

What is changing about how you connect to others and the natural world in the face of COVID-19? OR Which change or transformation in nature inspires you and why?

#interactingwithnature
#newhobbies
#hope
#isolation
#essential

PROTECT

What do you love about the earth? What on the earth is worth protecting? OR Which environmental issues do you stand up for and why?

#conservation
#activism
#preservation
#natureappreciation
#noplanetb

ENVISION

What do you hope for humans and the earth? Imagine a future that works for everyone (all of nature) -- what do you think it would look like?

#environmentaljustice
#workingtogether
#future
#humanecology
#growth