Program Dates

SIRIUS will begin on August 15 and end on August 19.

What does SIRIUS look like?

Your day-to-day experience will consist of virtual hikes, outdoor experiences, Zoom sessions, and complimentary short assignments. During virtual hikes, you'll explore beautiful locations across the United States from your device. For outdoor experiences, you'll engage the wilderness of your own backyard. Throughout SIRIUS, you'll get together with your fellow students and leaders via Zoom to reflect on your experiences, as well as your transition to college. Additional assignments will examine wellness, healthy eating, and community service.

Daytime Activities

You will complete 3 virtual hikes during SIRIUS. Each hike will visit a unique location in the United States and have you investigating its ecosystem and relationship with humans.

You will also complete 4 outdoor experiences during SIRIUS. These experiences allow you to engage with the outdoors nearby in a variety of ways, while also examining relationships between humans and the outdoors on both a large and personal scale.

Combined, these activities should take 3-4 hours to complete each day.

Zoom Calls

You will participate in a 1.5- to 2-hour Zoom call each night. These calls with your small group will provide opportunities to forge relationships with your fellow incoming students and leaders, while learning about life at Penn State and tying together your experiences from your daily activities.

Follow-up Classes & Assignments

There will be two follow-up evening class sessions, one in September and one in October. You will reconnect as a small group and focus on ideas of leadership and wellness. A few assignments will be completed early in the semester. These assignments are not designed to overwork you; they will help you understand wellness and reflect upon your AURORA experience. More information regarding your classes and assignments will be provided in the course syllabus.

Early Move-In

As an AURORA student, there may be an opportunity to arrive early to University Housing. Once arrival details are published, information will be posted at arrival.psu.edu under the "Special Programs" section.
